Why you should attend

This free event organised by East Riding Voluntary Action Services (ERVAS), East Riding of Yorkshire Council (ERYC) and Humber All Nations Alliance (HANA) who are funded by Humber FAWN (Funding Advice Workers Network) is a great opportunity to find out how information and communication technology can help your group find funding through avenues other than grants and awards, save money and work more effectively.

The following organisations will be attending; Humber All Nations Alliance, East Riding Voluntary Action Services, ERYC's External Funding Team, Virtual Riders, Big Lottery Fund, Heritage Lottery Fund, Lloyds TSB, Charity Bank in the North, ERYC's Adult Education, RefIT, Make a Difference Resources, ERYC's Third Sector Team plus others still to be confirmed.

Benefits of attending are:

- Meet with organisations on a one-to-one basis to discuss your project and ideas
- Learn about how the internet and other technology can help your organisation find funding, save money and work more effectively as well as sustain the future of your group
- Learn more about computer equipment, how it works, where to purchase from and about courses that can improve your computer skills
- Explore exciting and effective ways to fundraise
- Learn how to use GRANTnet, the Council's online funding search facility.

Who should attend?

Community and voluntary groups, charities, not for profit organisations, town and parish councils, schools, church organisations, sports clubs, ward members and council officers who are interested in seeking funding and advice for projects.
